Journey to Excellence

Scouting's new Quality Unit Award for 2011 is tied in part to Training.
To help reach JTE Silver or JTE Gold, you will need for your leaders to take Leader-Specific Training (as offered for Scoutmasters and Cub Leaders on 4/30).
Will your unit be the first one fully trained?

Excuses that won't fly

“Training is too expensive.”

Training is free if you preregister.

“Training is too far away.”

Saco is off the I95 corridor, conveniently located for most of the district.
If you want fall training to be closer, offer us a venue.

“It's still too far.”

Some training is available online at myscouting.org

“We don't want to give up our Saturday.”

Have the best and brightest leader from your unit contact the York District training team to join as a Trainer, and they will be able to deliver training to your unit any time. Contact Jacob Moorman, 370-5668, email below.

“I'm already trained.”

Great! Please encourage other leaders in your unit to attend.

“An individual step in character training is to put responsibility on the individual.”
– Robert Baden-Powell, founder of the World Scout Movement
